

A photograph of the Michigan State Capitol building, a large, ornate, light-colored stone structure with a prominent dome and classical architectural details. The building is set against a blue sky with some clouds. A large green tree is visible on the right side of the building.

KAROUB

ASSOCIATES

KAROUB REPORT

I NOVEMBER 2024

UNOFFICIAL ELECTION RESULTS

There was much at stake in this year's general election, with party control on the line at the federal and state levels. Ultimately, Republicans won control of the presidency and U.S. Senate, with party majority in the U.S. House still unknown as of 10:30 am this morning. At the state level, Republicans regained the Michigan House, eliminating (as of January 2025) the trifecta Democrats had secured in the 2022 midterms. The following is a broad overview of unofficial election results.

President

In the early morning hours of November 6, former President Donald Trump was declared the winner with 277 electoral votes to Kamala Harris' 224. As of 10:30 am today, the race in Michigan was still too close to call; however, while our state was considered one of seven swing or "battleground" states going into the election, at this point in time, Trump has won or is leading all seven of these crucial states.

continued on page 2

ELECTION TRACKER

U.S. Senate

Of 100 U.S. Senate seats, 34 were up for election. Among the most competitive of the races was between U.S. Representative Elissa Slotkin (D) and Mike Rogers (R). Slotkin was able to squeak by Rogers with a 48.57% to 48.35% victory called this morning.

Going into the election, Democrats held the Senate majority with 51 seats. With the election's unofficial winners, the Senate flips to a Republican majority. How large the majority will be is still unknown, as several other states' counts are still coming in.

U.S. House of Representatives

All 435 seats in the U.S. House of Representatives were up for election, with Republicans in control by only two seats going into the election. At this time, the chamber is still up for grabs as counts from across the country continue to come in.

Among Michigan's delegation, all incumbent contenders were able to retain their seats. New to the 119th Congress will be Tom Barrett (R-MI-7) and Kristen McDonald Rivet (D-MI-8).

Michigan Legislature

Republicans regained control of the State House and will have a 58-52 majority beginning in January 2025. Incumbents Jaime Churches (D-27-Wyandotte), Nate Shannon (D-58-Sterling Heights), Jim Haadsma (D-44-Battle Creek), and Jenn Hill (D-109-Marquette) lost re-election bids, though all other incumbents were victorious.

With Senator Kristin McDonald Rivet (D-Bay City) winning Michigan's 8th U.S. House District, Governor Whitmer will have to call a special election at some point to fill her State Senate seat.

Twelve freshmen legislators will join the chamber in January: Rylee Linting (R-27), Morgan Foreman (D-33), Nancy Jenkins-Arno (R-34), Jennifer Wortz (R-35), Matt Longjohn (D-40), Steve Frisbie (R-44), Jason Woolford (R-50), Ron Robinson (R-58), Joseph Pavlov (R-64), Stephen Wooden (D-81), Tim Kelly (R-93), and Karl Bohnak (R-109).

Click here for Karoub Associates' Election Tracker. Please note our tabulations are unofficial. However, we don't anticipate any substantial modifications to these results. We will provide further updates on this election overview if any discrepancies in reported results are found.

If you would like additional information or insight in any particular race, please contact us at karoub@karoub.com.